February 7 - 9 - Interviewing Series I - IV - 0800 - 1630 hrs. No Fee

Course Number: CR-551

This interviewing series consists of three days of instruction in the art and science of gathering accurate and more complete information from persons by means of oral interviews and assessing non-verbal communication. This involves oral interaction, interpretation of non-verbal behaviors, and assessment of deception. This process is discussed from the standpoint of various interviewing situations including traffic stops, vehicle collision investigations, interviews of victims and witnesses, and interrogations of criminal suspects.

This course incorporates the four levels of interviewing. Through the use of videos, slides and classroom exercises, participants discuss how to prepare for interviews, assess subjects, and conduct routine and formal interviews. Participants review and assess actual interviews and critique them for proper application of strategy and tactics. Interviewing methods introduced are discussed in light of both routine interviews, as well as the interrogation of a suspect in custody.

February 9 - Performance Improvement Program - 0900 - 1500 hrs. Fee: $190 - *see VanMeter site for group rates*

Performance Improvement Programs are well accepted by courts, arbiters, civil review boards and employees as a non-punitive means for dealing with employee performance deficiencies. They reduce the burden on management by placing the responsibility squarely on the employee's shoulders for improvement, reduce the basis for grievances because they are non-punitive methods for correcting deficient performance and they provide a valid offense against claims of illegal discrimination.

Topics Covered:

- The three causes for performance failure
- Standards for determining when performance needs improvement
- The advantages of performance improvement plans over punitive action
- How to develop a Performance Improvement Plan
- What it takes to enforce an improvement plan

February 28 - Report Writing & Case Preparation for the Law Enforcement Professional - 0800 - 1630 hrs. - No Fee

Course Number: PA-624

This course provides law enforcement professionals with the necessary tools for composing a proper police narrative as it pertains to the DUI arrest. We will examine the case preparation process and look at specific aspects of presenting a DUI case at trial. Successful prosecution of these cases hinges not only on proper note taking and report preparation, but also on preparedness and proper presentation at trial.

Topics covered include vital elements of a professional police report, proper grammar and punctuation, and common report writing mistakes.

Although this course is geared toward successful DUI prosecution, the instruction provided is applicable across a wide range of investigatory narratives. Both new and seasoned officers will benefit from the course as it provides a primer for new members of law enforcement and a refresher for seasoned officers who would benefit from additional instruction in this area.

This course will be interactive and is designed for students to actively participate through discussion, verbal exercises, written exercises, and the preparation of a DUI report.

March 1 - 2 - Tactical Communications: Realistic De-Escalation 0800 - 1630 hrs. - No Fee

Course Number: PA-625

This course examines the perceptions that many outside law enforcement have about law enforcement de-escalation and compares that with the realities faced on the street. We take a long look at the tactical considerations involved with the de-escalation process while also examining the training needs required to be more successful in influencing behavior for people in conflict and in crisis. We look at verbal skills, non-verbal behaviors, and effective intervention techniques that are instrumental in defusing conflict situations. This will allow the individual professional to increase their chances of ending the encounter on a positive note, thereby minimizing the danger posed by individuals being fueled by contaminated thinking.

Specific topics covered include effective methods of communication, barriers to communication, non-verbal communication, de-escalation techniques and tactical considerations. The course is designed to cover each of the topics mentioned while also delving into other areas such as proxemics and kinesics and how each is involved in defusing escalating situations.

In addition, we discuss the threat-assessment process as well as post-event professional articulation. These tactical communications and de-escalation techniques are being presented to enable departments and individuals to learn skills designed to prevent potential conflicts from spiraling out of control, stressing that a positive outcome is the desired goal of each citizen interaction.

March 2 - Discipline and Termination: Rules, Policies and Procedures - 0900 - 1500 hrs. - Fee: $190 *see VanMeter site for group rates*

The traditional punitive approach to progressive discipline and termination has become increasing burdensome and complex. Civil rights laws, unions and civil service board provide too many opportunities for problem employees to file frivolous grievances and law suits. Management needs to include non-punitive approaches, last chance agreements and no-fault terminations to deal with employees who will not or can't comply with the rules of the organization and be productive.

Attendees will be taught:

- How court and arbiters' support for management's right to enforce its rules, policies, procedures and practices with discipline and termination.
- The principles of Just Cause and Due Process as they apply to progressive discipline and terminations.
- How to use traditional v. non-traditional approaches to progressive discipline and termination.

March 6 - The Adaptive Supervisor - 0800 - 1700 hrs. - Fee: $219

*use code EARLY at checkout before January 6th to receive 10% off*

Attendees will work with a legal and ethical decision-making model and how to conduct pre-mortem and post incident after-action reviews. Students will be introduced to a generational proof feedback method to assist in developing the newest and next generation of law enforcement officers. This course will provide techniques to assist the supervisor not only in their daily activities but also in their overall professional development.

You will leave this class as a stronger supervisor by learning:

- How emotional intelligence creates compassionate & respectful police officers
- The Legal and Ethical Decision-Making Model
- Enhance the critical thinking abilities of your officers
- The generation proof Adaptive Feedback Model
- Decision making skills addressing de-escalation, implicit bias & procedural justice
- Pre-mortem and After-Action Incident Reviews
- The Adaptive Leadership Model

March 7 - Adaptive Decision Making for Law Enforcement

0800 - 1700 hrs. - Fee: $219 *use code EARLY at checkout before January 7th to receive 10% off*

Emotional Intelligence helps in reducing the stress caused by non-linear, uncertain events. Being able to regulate emotions allows officers to make better decisions. The use of thinking and mental models (OODA, Cynefin, Adaptive Decision-making model) assists the officer in their sense-making and decision-making capabilities. Students are taught to make decisions based on urgency or the need to take an action and within the Constitutional framework of the 4th Amendment. These components are a great compliment to any de-escalation strategy.

You will leave this class as a stronger by learning:

- How Emotional Intelligence creates compassionate and respectful police officers
- The Adaptive Decision-making Model
- How mental models help or hinder the decision-making process
- The Cynefin Sense-making Model
- How a spectrum strategy assists in managing time
- Understand the role bias plays in decision-making

April 24 - Conducting Sexual Assault Investigations 0900 - 1600 hrs. - Fee: $149

Sexual assault is one of the most complicated crimes to investigate. In the investigation and prosecution of most sexual assault cases, the role of the victim is much more important than in other crimes since the victim is usually the sole witness to the crime.

Unfortunately, sexual assault victims are sometimes reluctant to cooperate with law enforcement because they fear the perpetrator will return to retaliate. It is therefore imperative that sexual assault investigators understand victim responses and utilize the appropriate interview skills necessary in these cases. Not all victims of sexual assault behave in the same manner, so it is essential the investigator be informed, of mental and physical reactions to sexual assault. Understanding and working with your victim is crucial to successfully prosecute these cases.

Topics also covered:

- Collecting evidence
- Writing reports that effectively present the facts of even the most challenging sexual assault cases
- Using a Sex Assault Nurse Examiner System
- Understanding different types of sex crimes to include the specific statutory differences
- Identifying and overcoming personal feelings and beliefs about sex assault
- The search for truth with compassion

May 10 - Internal Investigations Functions - 0800 - 1600 hrs.

Fee: $190 *see Van Meter & Associates website for group rates*

Internal investigations are essential to the efficient operation of any public safety forces agency. Investigations of this nature are crucial to our democratic system of checks and balances. The lack of clear understanding of the due process principles that govern the investigation, failing to conduct investigations properly, and not having well documented cases are the major reasons why investigators fail, cases are lost, and agencies are sued and discredited.

Attendees are taught:

- The essential principles of Constitutional Due Process in an Investigation
- Review of three leading U.S. Constitutional cases affecting due process in internal investigations: Garrity v. State of New Jersey, 385 U.S. 493 (1967), Gardner v. Broderick v. Police Commissioner of New York City 392 U.S.273 (1968), Kastinger v. United States, 406 U.S. 441 (1972)
- Employee Representation (National Labor Relations Board v. Weingarten Inc., 420 U.S.251 (1975))
- Avoiding civil torts and liabilities
- Practical approaches to I.A. investigations
- How to document the I.A. case

July 17 - Social Media & Open Source Investigations 0900 - 1600 hrs. - Fee: $225

This course is intended to give police officers an in-depth knowledge of how to navigate around all of the major social media networks. The instructor, Nick Jerman, will teach officers how to use the most current Open-Source Intelligence websites and researching techniques. Having this knowledge will save countless hours of trial and error.

This class covers the rise in popularity of social media platforms. Jerman's course will teach you how to navigate, search and exploit all the major social media networks. Course attendees will learn how to use the most current OSINT websites and searching techniques. "Social Media and Open Source Investigations" will cover lesser-known social media platforms, how to link social media account to your investigative targets, helpful software, and applications that you can use as soon as you leave class, and the ins and outs of preserving data for court as well as writing subpoenas and search warrants for social media data. Jerman will even teach you to extract critical information from the photos that suspects post on their social media accounts!

This innovative course is designed for, and will be beneficial to all ranks of the police agency, from patrol to chief. Officers will be empowered with the ability to quickly and confidently find information on their targets, dig deeper online within their investigations, and keep themselves and their families safe on the internet. Modern issues in politics, policing, and world society drive the evolution of social media at an alarming rate, and Jerman's class is constantly updated to keep you on top of the rapid changes.

November 13 - Field Search Software Certification

0900 - 17600 hrs. - $495

Officers will learn how to search a suspect's computer using the latest proven technology. We provide the venue, instruction, certification, mobile computer lab, complete with case studies to aid with the hands-on learning experience. Students will be able to use the tools in the field by the end of the class.

All students will receive a licensed copy of Field Search (V5.2) software. Officers receive a 4GB USB drive with all course material, 15+ additional easy to use investigative software tools (Hashing tools, GEO tag tracing, etc.). Examine peripheral devices (USB drives, CD's, external hard drives, tablets, SD, Micro Sims Cards, multi-card readers, etc.) this may provide critical case information.

Field Search will find and display (Windows & some MAC's):

- Files sitting in the recycle bin (user believes they deleted these files, date and time deleted).
- Keyword Search looks for email address, victim names, credit card, or account numbers.
- URL records (Explorer, Edge, Chrome, Firefox, Opera, etc.) even deleted, some limitations WIN 11.
- Images (Pictures) several different formats-JPEG, GIF, BMT, PNG, and many more.
- Videos (Movies) several different formats-WMV, MPEG, FLV etc.
